
Student Tickets

I have a question. My wife and I have All-Sport passes, but she won't be going to the Utah game since she's going to have a baby any day now. But I have a friend who goes to another university and I was wondering if he could use her student ticket as long as he has a student ID card from his school, or if you have to have a BYU student ID card.? Does anyone know?

I'm a student at UVSC, and I just show them that ID, and I haven't had any trouble dangit jr, you beat me to it!

I'm pretty sure it has to be either a BYU or UVSC ID.

It can be ANY school ID, really... Even if you go to LDS business Coll in Salt Lake, or Provo College. They all SHOULD work. I go to uvsc as well and having the ID has worked since i started getting the sports pass 3 yrs ago.

if it came down to it, you can just go to the ticket booth and buy a student pass for like 5 or 10 bucks. its just a little ticket saying that you can use the student ticket

It can be ANY student ID. A friend of mine uses his Weber State ID when he comes down to go to games with me and there hasn't been a problem. Supposedly the guy sitting next to me brought his dad last week and his dad used a student ID from 1960 and they let him in.

They are way lax about it. I came to the BYU - CSU game and used my Boise State Alumni card along with a "student" ticket that I purchased the morning of the game. And check it out, I never even went to Boise State, but that's another story in and of itself. The BYU ticket office tells you that it can be ANY student ID from ANY college. I don't think the alumni card qualifies but they sure didn't care.

Any student ID will work to get in, plus if you don't have an ID, you can buy a $10 voucher outside the gate to get in without a student ID. Go Cougars!
