
The Princess Bride: Utah/BYU style

Posted by Phillycougar - 2007/11/29 12:32

Bronco: The battle of wits has begun. It ends when you decide and we run the play, and find out who is right...and who is wrong.

Whitt: But it's so simple. All I have to do is divine from what I know of you: are you the sort of man who would prepare a defense for a reverse or a double-reverse? Now, a clever man would prepare for a double-reverse, because he would know that only a great fool would call a single-reverse play. I am not a great fool, so I can clearly not call that play. But you must have known I was not a great fool, you would have counted on it, so I can clearly not choose to assume that you'd prepare for a double-reverse.

Bronco: You've made your decision then?

Whitt: Not remotely. Because the double-reverse originated in Australian football, as everyone knows, and Australia is entirely peopled with criminals, and criminals are used to having people not trust them, as you are not trusted by me, so I can clearly not choose the double-reverse.

Bronco: Truly, you have a dizzying intellect.

Whitt: Wait till I get going! Now, where was I?

Bronco: Australia .

Whitt: Yes, Australia . And you must have suspected I would have known the play's origin, so I can clearly not choose the double-reverse.

Bronco: You're just stalling now.

Whitt: You'd like to think that, wouldn't you? You've beaten my reverse kickoff return, which means you're exceptionally wise, so you could be counting on a double-reverse, trusting on your disciplined players to save you, so I can clearly not choose to run that play. But, you also foiled my reverse flea-flicker, which means you must have studied film, and in studying film you must have learned that you can't expect the expected.

Bronco: You're trying to trick me into giving away something. It won't work.

Whitt: IT HAS WORKED! YOU'VE GIVEN EVERYTHING AWAY! I KNOW WHAT PLAY TO RUN!!

Bronco: Then make your choice.

Whitt: I will, and I choose... What in the world can that be?

Bronco: What? Where? I don't see anything.

Whitt: Well, I- I could have sworn I saw something. No matter. First, let's call in our plays...your defense against my offense.

Bronco: You guessed wrong.

Whitt: You only think I guessed wrong! That's what's so funny! I switched plays when your back was turned! Ha ha! You fool! You fell victim to one of the classic blunders! The most famous is never get involved in a land war in Asia , but only slightly less well-known is this: never go in against a Whittingham when a second-place MWC finish is on the line! Ha ha ha ha ha ha! Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha! Ha ha ha...

Reynolds: And to think, all that time you had game-planned for a TRIPLE-reverse.

Bronco: ...Silly Whitt. I game-planned for both a single-reverse AND a Double-reverse. But doesn't he realize that a triple-reverse eventually takes you to the same point as a single-reverse???

Yes..exactly. When I saw that play Saturday it infuriated me. What a joke. What an em bare-ass-ment. I just hope no one else in the country has seen that ridiculous, playground play. If we want credit for being a legit conference that kind of crap has got to go. Hair should fine Witt.

Brian Johnson: Where am I?

Collie: Lavell Edwards Stadium! Don't even think...

Collie: ... don't even think about trying to escape. Our lineman are far too big. Don't dream of being rescued, either; the only way to beat us is secret. Only Bronco, Coach Doman, and I know how to get in and out.

Brian Johnson: So I'm here till I die?

Collie: Until we kill you, yeah.

Brian Johnson: So it's to be torture?

Collie:

Brian Johnson: I can cope with torture.

Collie:

Brian Johnson: Don't believe me?

-- TCU vs. BYU 2005

BYU Fans: Boo. Boo. Boo.

Ref: Why do you do this?

BYU Fans: Because you had the truth in your hands, and you gave it up.

Ref: But BYU would have beat TCU if I hadn't done it.

BYU Fans: The true call lives. And you call another. Calling a fumble would have saved BYU, and you treat the video replay like garbage. And that's what you are, the King of Refuse. So bow down to Coach Patterson if you want, bow to him. Bow to the King of the Frogs, the King of Filth, the Queen of Putrescence. Boo. Boo. Rubbish. Filth. Slime. Muck. Boo. Boo. Boo.

Cougar friends,

Let me set the record straight. I did not write this neither was my intention to pass it off as my own work. I don't actually visit cougarboard but got the message in an email from a guy in my ward who was taunting Ute fans. I read it, thought it was great and wanted to share it with you guys. I didn't have time to research its origins and really didn't think about putting in an exclaimer that it was not from me. My thought process was much like quickly forwarding on a funny email to friends without writing a personal message; only in this case my friends were you guys here and not email friends and in jumping from email to the cougarblue forum you were not able to see the origins of the message.

For the record I have no big hopes of building a great profile here, I come to read and share my love for the cougars. I am setting the record straight mainly because I didn't want an unanswered accusation to distract from all of the fantastic responses in this post. I am sorry if you felt mislead as that was not my intention, it was just trying to share something really funny.

Ahh, the Princess Bride... one of my favorite movies of all-time and indeed an absolute classic! I've been reading, laughing and enjoying this thread and agree 100% with Jared... probably the best ever on the site (yes, it even trumps the spoof done with me as a sacrificial lamb)! Kudos to you PhillyCougar... a good laugh is exactly what we all need every now and then!!! OK, can't help but add to the true genius of this thread:

Max Hall (to a Ute defender): "Give us the endzone."

Ute defender: "There is no endzone"

Max: "Harvey, tear his arms off!"

Ute defender: "Oh, you mean THIS endzone".

Touchdown!

Here's another perfect one:

Max Hall (to a Ute defender after being hit by Kehl): "Hello down there... slow going"?

Ute: "You could make yourself useful and help me up by giving me a hand or something".

Max: "Wouldn't do much good since I'm just waiting around to beat you".

Ute: "That does put a damper on our relationship".

Is Princess Bride just huge in the "Mormon culture"? Most of my out of state non-LDS friends have seen it, but can't quote every line like your typical Mormon.

P.S. I hate calling membership of the LDS Church "Mormons", but writing out member of the LDS Church just takes so long.

You could revert to bulletin-boardese and just use MOTLDSC. But in a few years we'd all forget what it stood for (or am I the only one that has to Google some of the acronyms?).
