Great post Mars. To bad we couldn't get the email addresses of all these guys and flood them with some BYU love. Hopefully after this week we will see A LOT of top 10 votes.

If we lose this weekend to Michigan St, are we out of the top 25 until we hit 20 wins I bet.

Winning against Michigan St. is so huge. I wish I could be at the game.

Sadly, you're probably right, even though when Louisville or Indiana (the first two examples to come to mind) got upset earlier this year they only dropped a few spots. We're just unfortunate enough to be only a few spots into the polls.

Seth Davis is a Sports Illustrated writer. What the heck is he thinking? Does he not watch the games?
