
Are you taking your family to the Las Vegas Bowl?

Hello, loyal CougarBlue enthusiasts!

I'm working on a story for the Daily Herald's (annual) BYU/Las Vegas Bowl special section and I'm looking for a family from Utah Valley that is packing up and heading south to attend the big game together next week to write a story about what it takes and what it means to do it together.

If you fall into this category and are willing to talk to me about it, please email me at jilloyd@heraldextra.com.

Thanks and good luck, BYU!
