Cummard scores a 3 for his first basket. Wyoming answers with 2.

I hope Rose goes through Cummard tonight to get him 20-25 points to enhance his POY chances.

Tavernari scores a 3, which leaves him 1 behind Toolson for most 3s in a season.

Then he just hit another and tied Toolson for the most 3s in a single season.

BYU up 16-5

Hey Peasant, you're not alone and not unappreciated! I'm down in Mexico this week and missed the first half on the live radio feed so your updates are much appreciated. Please keep it coming. And if anyone else has other commentary please add it.

How full is the MC? Has Taylor been a able to do anything against TP to back his talk this week?

Thanks!

Thanks for the kind words and karma, fans.

I'll do my best.

Plaisted added 3 points in the half already so I believe he's up to 14 points for the game.

Wyoming called a TO to break up BYU's run.

PLaisted is having a great game and Taylor isn't doing much of anything against him. I think Taylor was having some fun with his comments about Plaisted. It's been a clean game, no rough play.

The crowd is hard to tell given how the seats are set back and they don't pan the camera up into the crowd that much. I'll keep you posted once I get a goodlook.

You are welcome, glad they helped. B)

BYU really did play loose tonight and cruised to an easy win. I don't think Wyoming really pushed too hard to keep it that close either. BYU had some nice spurts that just left Wyoming scratching their heads wondering how they were trailing so badly.

In response to whoever asked about the best conference record in MWC history, that would be the Utes in 04-05 when they went 13-1. Of course, that was before they went to a 16-game schedule (and 9-team conference) so I don't think it's as impressive as a 14-2 season, which we hopefully will finish with. We'll be the only 14-2 champ since TCU joined the conference 3 years ago.

Utah finished 15-2 in conference play that year after losing to New Mexico in the MWC Tourny. BYU could still finish with a better MWC record overall if the Cougars win out.

So, the Wyoming game! :)

~BYU wins their 47th home game in-a-row by 17 points, longest active streak in the nation (which we all know and are quite proud of). Seniors Burgess, Murdock, and Ivanovic have gone undefeated in Provo over the past 2 years.

~BYU locks up another outright conference championship.

~RPI stays at 23, 24th/26th national ranking is defended until at least Saturday.

~JT sets the MWC record for made 3s in one season (76). He's gotta be at least an All-MWC 2nd-Teamer. 18 points, 5 steals, and 5 rebounds tonight.

~Trent scores 23 and grabs 11 rebounds.

~Burgess scores 13, Fredette has 4 assists, and Cummard scores 12, adding 7 rebounds, 5 assists, and 2 blocks.

Next Up: The Real Trap Game!

New Mexico, SDSU, Utah, Wyoming, and CSU all lost at TCU. :ohmy:
