
BYU Baseball Wins 4th In-A-Row

Posted by Mars - 2008/03/06 22:16

This 3-2 victory over San Jose State (who was 6-2 heading into this game) evens out the Cougars record, which now sits at 5-5.

Kent Walton, our season-long MVP, hit a double to drive in the winning run.

http://www.sjsuspartans.com/ViewArticle.dbml?DB_OEM_ID=5600&ATCLID=1405997

Re:BYU Baseball Wins 4th In-A-Row

Posted by Mars - 2008/03/07 02:19

Of Course.

BYU played 1-6 Sacramento State next. We lost, 16-2. And Kent's hitting-streak ended. Down to 5-6 now. Good news, I guess, is that this is all on the road (no home games will be played for a while still... too cold).

<http://www.byucougars.com/Filing.jsp?ID=10427>

Re:BYU Baseball Wins 4th In-A-Row

Posted by Conosticator - 2008/03/09 13:56

Mars wrote:

Of Course.

BYU played 1-6 Sacramento State next. We lost, 16-2. And Kent's hitting-streak ended. Down to 5-6 now. Good news, I guess, is that this is all on the road (no home games will be played for a while still... too cold).

<http://www.byucougars.com/Filing.jsp?ID=10427>

I think my neighbor's daughter was pitching. I told her that wheelchair would affect her curve ball but she wouldn't listen... :huh:
