We are turning it over way too much. Obviously, the 3s aren't falling so it's time to take a step forward. Let's go cougs!

We're down 21 to 15. SDSU is taking it to us. We have no answer for White and Amoroso is taking it to us too. It's a two man show for SDSU, meanwhile we keep handing them the ball.

Someone put a body one white!

Re:BYU vs. SDSU game thread

We're gonna have to figure Amoroso out. If he keeps going at it and scoring like he has, Trent's gonna be in foul trouble before long.

Did the team eat their pregame meal at KFC or something? It sure seems like their hands are greased up. They can't hold on to the ball.

This is the first bball game I have been able to watch. I can't believe how badly Plaisted is getting pushed around. Now I understand all of the arguments over whether or not he is NBA ready.

Re:BYU vs. SDSU game thread

Way to go to the Cougars for scrapping back to take the lead at half. It is too bad we couldn't take advantage of having Wade on the bench with fouls. But, with as bad as they shot, to be up one at half is not bad.

Cummard and Murdock get my dunce of the game award. Cummard is a sweet, talented player but my gosh he makes the dumbest, casual plays. Murdock can't hit a free throw in a game that came down to making free throws?? Step up and hit the shots, you're supposed to be a good FT shooter.

Still, a nice win for BYU, even though they stunk it up most of the game.

Great win for our beloved Cougars. I was worried there a bit in the first half where Amaroso was having his way in the key.

Kudos to PLAisted to rising to the occasion as well as Cummard, both the heart and soul of this year's team.

It's good to see that even when the shots weren't falling, the Cougars were able to adjust, use a more grinding, halfcourt game and beat a solid opponent. It bodes well for the NCAA tourney, knowing that we can play both ways and be effective.

I don't get this comment. Cummard may make a casual play once in awhile but overall he was a good portion of our game tonight. He was consistent and played some good defense on some guys that were beating us pretty badly from the low block all night.

The dunce award needs to go to Tav for the casual attempt at a layup that could have been thrown out of bounds with the same result. The announcers even stated something like "what was that?" because it looked stupid, lacked control or genuine effort to score, and consisted of a whole lot of body language of "I don't care where this goes".
