It says the password doesn't work. Did it get changed? Is it too late? I'll keep trying, but it's not letting me in.

It worked for me last night. It might be asking for your espn account password.

You have to set up an account with espn so you create your own password. you can then enter the bracket competition.

"To join this group with your Illinois1cougar entry, please enter the password. If you don't know the password, you may contact the group creator."

So now what? I already have an account with ESPN

If you're already signed in to ESPN (my computer signs me in automatically every time I visit the site) you just need to enter the group password which is gocougs

There we go, now it works. Needed the right password. I have had an ESPN account for a few years, but it was the correct password. Thanks for posting that. I look forward to this.

So as a former five-bracket winner but who got creamed in the one-bracket tourney last year, are we going with just one bracket or are we allowed up to five?

THanks for getting this signed up. I just filled out by bracket!

Yes, please let us know:

Is this a one bracket group or five or ten like ESPN allows?

I was able to load two of my brackets to the group but not all that I had made and ESPN allowed ten.

Do I need to choose two to put in Cougarblue or just one?

Nevermind..the access locked. I took my first one out to see if I could choose another to add in and it won't let me.

Must just be the time.

Oh well, my second bracket is a respectable one. :P

GO COUGARS!

It should be the more the merrier. Sorry last minute. I don't think there is any restrictions.

I just finished mine about an hour ago. I let my oldest son do "Child 2" for J. Child. It should be fun. I put a few more gut feeling upsets in this bracket than I did for the one I entered in our family pool where the bragging rights are face to face for the coming year. We have a traveling trophy too with winner and year inscribed. :-)

Go COugs!!!

Snos is kicking some tail

My bracket is all torn up (I always get sucked into a sexy tourney team like Pitt, that disappoints me) but Snos has the potential right now to have a top 100 bracket in ESPN; not too shabby
