When I am on cfn.scout.com I keep seeing this ad and I swear that guy is scarily identical to Kirk Herbstreit if Kirk was fatter.

Sorry the image that is being compared to the one you are seeing is not showing since it is a Tiff. I am logging another comp here at work to convert the tiff to jpeg with photoshop.

Almost there

UPDATE: Both pictures are showing now. I STILL can't believe how much that looks like a chubby herbstreit. lol

Good. I was a little worried that you had put a little too much Captain Morgan in your caffeine free Diet Coke.

I agree whole heartedly. But, you know, this is a BYU board.

HAHAHAHAHA! I had to reply...that is great! Although I already kinda see Herbstreit as a fathead anyways. Since his egos too big to watch the so-called little games like anything BYU! What a PUNK! :angry: Ok ...that felt better! :)

I don't find him to be half as bad as his loud shmoe compadre who puts on the mascot heads. Talk about a tool!

That tool...is Lee Corso...he actually is one of the few that likes BYU. Don't be too hard on him.

Herbstreit is an Ohio State homer and college football elitist. He is a significant part of the BCS problem, and a BCS mafia mid-level operative. His drivel on Saturdays during the season is so predictable. "Big-10 this, Big-10 that, I am in love with Jim Tressel and every other BCS coach on the planet, all of whom will be transfigured."
