Zilog, was it you that first posted the flag football thread a few weeks ago? Anyway, just wondering if there will be a game this Saturday. Making my weekend plans and wanted to set that time aside.

Zilog and his buddies play flag saturday mornings around ten or ten thirty, and tackle at twoish, at least this past sat. I played in the tackle game, it was great. Everyone was pretty friendly, nobody was killed, we all had a good time as far as i could tell. i highly recommend it. Besides, its football!

oh and they play at the mountain view high school stadium

Sweet! Ya we play flag football at 10:30AM and tackle at 2PM.

With the weather being a lot better now a days I'm hoping to get more people out to play. It's always a good time, with lots of laughs and such.. Hope to see more Cougarblue'rs come out!
