
Favorite sports songs?

Posted by Hengst - 2008/04/19 12:48

So I'm putting together a "sports songs" playlist for my ipod and I became curious as to what your favorite sports songs are (either songs that get you pumped to play, or songs about sports"?)

some of mine:

"remember the name" fort minor

"heart of a champion" nelly

"we will rock you" queen

"we are the champions" queen.

that's just a few, what are some of yours?

The best songs that are actually played at sporting events in no particular order:

1. Welcome to the Jungle
2. Final Countdown
3. Firestarter by Prodigy
4. Eye of the Tiger
5. Take Me out to the Ball Game (doesn't get you fired up, but you know you're in a good place if you are actually singing it.)
6. Enter Sandman
7. Kickstart my Heart
8. That Gary Glitter Song (I don't know the title)

Songs that are played too much at sporting events:

1. That Empire Strikes Back Song
 2. Cotton Eye Joe
 3. Jump Around
 4. Keep Em Separated

I don't know what that little techno-ish ditty is with no words that they usually play right before the game starts or at warm ups. Anyway, whatever it is I like it.

Speaking of which, what is that song they always play right before kickoff and tipoff that the crowd always sings along to?

I think we are thinking of the same thing. The crowd sings along but I can never make out any words.

I have the answer after a little Google search. It is called Kernkraft 400 remix by Zombie Nation. itunes has it and it is going on the ipod. Just hearing that gets me so pumped. :silly:

I think you're thinking of the Techno Viking song.

The same, officially named Kernkraft 400 Sports Stadium Chant mix by Zombie Nation. Maybe we could get that Techno Viking guy to lead the team in a warm up after the haka. :laugh:

Welcome to the Jungle is an excellent choice. Not so sure on Final Countdown.

Some oldies I remember are:

Rocky

The Hustle (that dates me back to '70s golf)

Rage in the Cage, by the J. Giles Band

the Jazz intro, by Alan Parsons Project

Fanfare for a Common Man, by Emerson, Lake and Palmer

Tom Sawyer, by Rush

Kasmir, by Led Zeplin

The hustle hu?

interesting choice . . .

Tom Sawyer is a classic though, I love that song.

I would have to go with Mike Shinoda's song, "remember the name". They played it like crazy last year during the NBA finals. Or the Lil Jon song with the crazy train remix. I think its called "lets go".

It's the same song. Fort Minor is the side project of Mike Shinoda of Linkin Park.

The final countdown and the Alan Parsons Project intro are tied for my two favorites but then I used to go to a lot of Jazz games in the 90's. A personal song that pumps me up but doesn't get played at events is Brain Stew by Green Day (and I'm not really into Green Day either).

The 1st 30-40 seconds of "Iron Man"-Black Sabbath- are made for football. I loved it long before the upcoming movie <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=X8OjguOWKqg>

My ex-wife was a KC Chiefs cheerleader and they used to come out to the song "These Boots" (believe me 3 seasons worth of KC Chiefs tickets was not worth that marriage)

My favorites are:

1. I Won't Back Down - Tom Petty
2. Eye of the Tiger - Survivor
3. Burning Hearts - Survivor
4. Don't Stop Me Now - Queen
5. Hearts on Fire - John Cafferty
6. Its a Fight - Three 6 Mafia

These always get me pumped for a workout, rugby game, or just whatever

Here are some songs. Some are not good for sports (I'll let you figure out which ones).

Killing In The Name
The Mittness
the Fly
Korobeiniki
Seconds-needs to be played loudly
Flea Market
Take Me Out-Takes a while to get going
My favorite tribute to Star Wars

Good call on The Fly --- a U2 Rock 'n Roll Classic! (And one of my favorite guitar solos EVER.)

Thunderstruck by AC/DC <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6Evu8L2pF7w>

Loose yourself by Eminem <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v-RT7F-V6ec>

Mother by Danzig <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vgSn0SbQJQI>

Those are a few of my favs off the top of my head.

dude its not "Loose yourself" its Lose yourself... And you better throw in some Korn into your pregame mix to get stoked. And what about "Outta my way" by Seether...Then top it off with some disturbed and I'd say you are pretty stoked by now and ready to take off your opponents head! :)

I love the Grammar Police:dry: Korn had some decent stuff early on but I haven't liked anything they've done recently.

I just said some korn...I never said recent. I haven't heard them in years...And I usually don't correct but loose and lose...two different words.

Wouldn't any set of two words be considered two different words?

Anywho, don't want to hi-jack (or is it high jack) the thread. On with the music talk.

Also Korn is spelled "Corn". ;)

What is up with metal bands misspelling things? Does anyone remember Keel or Tuff.

Here's a couple that I've never heard in a sports setting outside of skateboarding but I wish were played.
