Mendenhall's Fat Boy

According to Harmon, Coach Mendenhall is now the proud owner of a Harley Davidson "Fat Boy".

I'd love to see him riding this onto the field, maybe right after the haka. :blink:

Fat Boys are pretty sweet bikes. Just the same, I hope someone doesn't run him over while he is riding it. Can you imagine the damage Bronco would do to that person's car?

From what I have read of Bronco, he would probably carry the guy to a hospital just to make sure he was okay and push the guys car to a repair shop and fix it himself!

I also heard that...

Bronco Mendenhall was once so fully invested, he outscored Dow Jones.

Bronco Mendenhall can execute at a higher level than Red Communist China.

In one practice, Bronco Mendenhall coached the receivers and had Rod Wilkerson catching like Glen Kozlowski. He was asked to stop so that Crowton could be fired.

Bronco Mendenhall makes grown men cry on a regular basis. Just ask Kyle Whittingham. Or Bruce Davis.

So does this mean we'll see Bronco ride into LES before a game wearing a Karl Malone style mustache and leather straps? And instead of Diamond Dallas Page in the stands Hulk Hogan will be there telling all his little "hulkamaniacs" to drink their milk and take their vitamins so they can grow up big and strong and become little "cougarmaniacs"? :cheer:

Before the boogieman goes to bed, he checks underneath his bed for Chuck Norris. Before Chuck Norris goes to bed, he checks underneath his bed for Bronco Mendenhall.

Yes. But, the Y helmet wears Bronco more than he wears the helmet.

Have you ever seen Bronco's brother? He is a weightlifter and actually looks like Hulk Hogan (but not as big).

Man I hope he stays alive. I am not in the medical field but my friends that are call them DonorBikes. I would love to have one but too many get killed by them. I can see the headlines now...

Just be careful Bronco.

Don't worry...when you do the right things on and of the field, magic happens!

You know I heard that Bronco once blocked a roundhouse kick by Chuck Norris.

Just as long as Morganna doesn't come out of the stands to kiss him, anything he does will be fine by me... :laugh:

Uh-oh! It all starts with the Harley and goes downhill from there. Next thing you know Bronco will be making an appearance on WWE's "Summer Slam" against Triple H! :laugh:
