
Latu Heimuli

This kid, in my estimation, has to be "THE" top lineman, in Utah state high school football right now, and if BYU doesn't have him at the top, or close to the top of their list, they are making a huge mistake.

The kid has size, 6'4" and 305 lbs., he is lightning quick on both sides of the ball! He demands double and triple teams on defense, and provides excellent blocking offensively.

The kid is a "BEAST", period!

The Y better get on the ball with him, or just like Haloti Ngata, before him, he may be taking his skills out of state.

a little due diligence and you would have seen that byu has already offered, and he has a "high" level of interest.

i am convinced that bronco is ahead of the curve when it comes to rating hs athletes. several of the players byu has offered were not rated earlier this week. now all of a sudden, they have 3 and 4 stars (latu being one of them).

Is the whole extended Heimuli familiy into football? You're right, that is a great name in BYU football history!

Jay Drew, in his SL Trib recruiting blog, just posted about Heimuli.

Sounds like he doesn't have a favorite at this point. I was hoping that he would still say that he is leaning toward BYU.
