I was proud to see the MWC with three teams in the top ten.

Man I kinda like Air Force and Delaware's uni's. That baby blue isn't that bad either.

I know, that's unfortunate. I suppose that AFA may get out of the 10 now that they've slightly changed their uni's...then again wyo left the gold for the pee and stayed in. so perhaps they will all stay.

Here's my opinion of the best to worst for the mwc.

- 1-BYU-obviously i choose the Y. But it's glory and tradition answers why the color blue is so dark and great!
 - 2-Air Force-most people may not, but i like the bolts
 - 3-CSU-when they are home green/gold, all white doesn't look so good
 - 4-UNLV-rebels is sort of a gay name, but i like the silver helmets and black shoulders
 - 5-New Mexico-just because they call it "cherry"
 - 6-TCU-black pants-purple top and frenchlike frogs? they are today's hawaii rainbows
 - 7-yewts-the red helmet doesn't match the red jersey's but they at least try, unlike...
 - 8-SDSU-similar to unlv, no real consistency, having diff. color helmets, jersey's, pants (away)
 - 9-Wyoming: pee and poo 'nuff said.
