
Kelly Poppinga Updates

I figured Kelly Poppinga deserved his own thread.

I haven't found minicamp reports on him yet, but here is an article on just him. The author approaches it as though he will obviously make the team because he said "Poppinga's signing adds depth" and never said that Poppinga is hoping to make the team.

Edit: I just found a minicamp report that said "BYU linebacker Kelly Poppinga was there all weekend, but I didn't notice him once, which isn't a good thing."

Hopefully he can turn it up a notch.
