Mars,

Thanks for proving everyone's point. Two of the 3 pictures you chose for the Jazz offense section, clearly show fouls (one of which was called). The one with Odem and Harpring you can clearly see that Odem is making contact on the arm (was not called a foul).

The one with AK and Gasol shows Gasol pushing AK at the waste (and this was after the whistle had already blown, because AK was actually fouled earlier in the play).

1- Bahaha! Homer.

2- Gasol's hand is nowhere near AK's butt. :laugh:

Mars, You've got to be the biggest Laker homer I know. (That's too bad considering you're a Kings fan.)

Sorry again that the Kings are so horrible.

Like I care what a Ute thinks.

One more game and you won't have to continue this discussion any more...

From Wikipedia:

Bitter Kings fan: See Mars

Mars: See Bitter Kings fan.

Man, it must really pain you to see the Jazz in the playoffs while your kings sit at home. The Jazz remain one of the best run small media market team in all of the NBA, me thinks you doth protest to much. Jealous?

I don't even know Mars but I can guarantee you he is not JEALOUS of the Jazz, that's laughable....:laugh:

Mars you have clearly stated that you are a Kings Fan.

What do you care of the Jazz Lakers series??

You have condemed trolling but you are TROLLING this bored with this stupid lakers jazz pic. post.

Maybe you have jumped off the Kings bandwagon and jumped on the Laker bandwagon? If that's the case then NOW would be a good time to jump off the BYU bandwagon and head over to Utah. They have a good team coming back and a 5 star recruit.. Whats not to like?????????

Eldermars; I have chatted with you on this site for years. Never have you posted such trash. Your Utah hate threads are fine and dandy... It's your opp. But EVERYONE knows your from Sac-town, Like the Kings etc.

Plz let your anti-utah hate exclude the Jazz. They are younger, less paid, better coached and better supported than the glitz and glame of the L.A Lakers. I am truley suprised you stipped this low. All this coming from a Byu fan...GO

What is the story on Derick Fisher? He left the Jazz claiming he needed better care for his daughter but not knowing the whole story it would appear at first glance to be him simply wanting to play for LA again. Does anybody have any info on this?

I was just thinking about how the Lakers 2nd and 4-5th best players were given to them for absolutely nothing.

I guess we'll have to move the Jazz to Ogden, then, huh....

You got that right! Kobe wanted out of the Laker system so bad about 8-10 months ago IF they didn't do something to get some decent players to assist him. Before anyone knew it they had a championship caliber team on their roster. Fish's story is some what suspect in my opinion although LH Miller is taking the high road and not calling him out and taking Fish's statement as fact. He's a better man than I. Fish knew Kobe and they got along well with each other, I believe there was some communication with each other before Fish left the Jazz. This of course is only suspicion.
