Feel free to follow along with gametracker. I'm not THAT invested, so I'm just checking periodically. Go Cougs!

now that you guys said you'd rather win the sports that count and don't care about the dd trophy you've gone and done it. The yewts found out and aren't even trying. Typical yewts. Perhaps i should actually give the worst byu team since the miller stadium opened some credit-2 home runs in the 5th.
