Nice find, gmoney....we've heard it all along, but to be on the front pg of espn's coll football is REALLY nice to see. and that ARTICLE is really long, too. LES better be so loud and intense this season ththat i can't hear myself talk or think.

Thanks gmoney for the heads up!

The more of this "quest for perfection" talk I see, the more nervous I get. I mean, I was just as frustrated as the next person with our 4 losses over the last 2 seasons, but it seemed to take pressure off the conference games.

All I know is, I'm already turning into a nervous wreck thinking about this season. I don't know if I'll be able to handle the rivalry game should we be going up there undefeated.

One has to wonder though, if we start out with a high enough ranking, at what point would people stop talking about busting the BCS and talk about a possible Nat'l championship shot?

"That the Cougars have arrived in such a lofty position just four years after Mendenhall's arrival is testament to the job the BYU alum has done."

Is he referring to Mendenhall being a BYU alum (which he isn't) or the job of alums in the program?

He's referring to Mendenhall being a BYU alum, which is factually inaccurate. This article was already discussed in a previous thread: http://www.cougarblue.com/component/option,com\_fireboard/Itemid,26/func,view/id,184951/catid,2/

Thanks for the gift, but DiehardCougars gave it to us about 2 hours earlier. I hope you can return it.

it is the 2nd time we've been on the espn college cover on their site. And it's only preseason! Imagine if we start 3-0. We'll be on the cover every week (it's not the magazine, but still cool)

I took it to mean Mendenhall. He also said Willing xfered from Vandy but it was Sorenson.

Just thought I should share my own personal excitement, I have a countdown timer on my computer at work, 60 days, 15 hours, 45 minutes until BYU's first football game of the 2008 season!

Go Cougars!

I love the BCS bowl aspirations this year, but I have yo say there's one thing that REALLY urks me: right from the front page leader into the article-"with a BCS bid as the ultimate prize."

A BCS bowl is NOT the ultimate prize! :angry: A National Championship is the ultimate prize!

I can't stand how obvious it is that the haves are trying to make the havenots want a much lower prize by talking about it like it is the end-all-be-all in college football. While a BCS bowl is a great accomplishment, especially considering the stupid requirements to even qualify for a non-cartel team, that's not what we should be playing for!! It's sad that it's become that.

I think Bronco talked about the National Championship, and the ESPN Blue Ribbon article did too. I remember hearing Bronco state his plan, and it was this year we will probably get to a BCS game, and the next year contend for a spot in the national championship game. If BYU goes undefeated 2 years in a row, the 2nd year they have to be in the national championship game! The BCS has got to be thinking they want to get rid of those pesky cougars! That's BYU's time to shine.

Go Cougars!
