
BYU destroying oklahoma

okay, it's from 1994 the copper bowl. But it's been fun watching OU get Destroyed! I didn't realize how many yards BYU unleashed, until the game i guess OU had only allowed 190 yards receiving per game, by the mid 2nd quarter BYU had already acrewed 250+ yards!

This could happen easily in 2008 (so i dream)

visit byu.tv anytime this week and re-watch it if you can't tonight! it'll be under wed. at 830pm

I loved the way the announcers were so surprised about how the cougs pounded the Sooners, and how well Walsh directed the offense
