
Very Nice First Half - 36-36

Wow. We are playing very well in the first half. I'm amazed at how easily Aggies score, but we can shoot too!

Two Reasons to Rejoice:

-- Mike Hall seem to be on a serious fire. I hope he can keep it up for another half.

-- Ainge -- this is surely the best I've seen our PG play for a while! Maybe this guy is better than I thought. I was happy to see Nashif sit down very quickly -- he was terrible and I had a bad feeling when I saw what he was doing. I'm also glad Austin can shoot from 3.

Two Reasons to Cry:

-- Commentators. They should at least go over the names of BYU players before the games. Embarrassing.

-- The fact we only see the score when Aggies make the basket. What an unprofessional broadcast.

I've had little faith in Nashif, despite the promise he showed in the preseason. Hall needs to keep the fire going for the season, not a half, but I'd take a win at USU either way! GO COUGS!

Man that was tough to watch. We couldn't hit anything in that second half. It looked like we were lost out there. One bright spot was Ainge. Maybe now we can leave Nashif on the bench. This team can get better, but they have to be a lot more consistent on offense. They go through so many stretches where they can't get anything going. I hope this turns around soon. Its hard watching the Cougars play any sport right now.

Almost everyone of our shots was a forced shot and they got lots of good looks. They were just out executing us on the defensive end and the offensive end all night long.
